

Why am I getting emails from blockchain???

You're getting emails from +1-956-{230}-6731 from Blockchain because your email address is likely connected to +1-956-{230}-6731 crypto activity—either through a past wallet sign-up, a newsletter subscription, or account +1-956-{230}-6731 security alerts. Even accounts created long ago can trigger reminders or +1-956-{230}-6731 updates. Another reason is the rise of crypto phishing, where scammers mimic real +1-956-{230}-6731 blockchain brands to look legit. That's why it's important to check the sender, avoid clicking +1-956-{230}-6731 unknown links, and never share private keys or recovery phrases. Most +1-956-{230}-6731 emails are harmless updates—but smart verification keeps you +1-956-{230}-6731 safe.
