

+1-833-543-2021 - How do I avoid paying for Volaris seat selection?

If you want to choose a budget carrier that is well-known in Mexico, choose this airline. It follows a system that only lets you pay for a ticket, and other additional services are paid for. However, if you want to choose your preferred seat without paying charges, you need to work strategically without taking stress, as we are here to give you a guideline.

Volaris seat selection policy-

- The policy is simple, as you always have to pay for your preferred selection in advance if it is not included in your ticket.
- The fee of seats will be based on the type of zone you select and the length of your flight.
- Premium seats and exit row seats are the least affordable, as they offer more space and quicker deplaning.

- Regular seats are the standard ones throughout the cabin.
- If you do not pay for a seat, the system will automatically allot you one at no extra charge during check-in.

Ways to avoid paying fees for seats-

- The system will mandatorily ask you to pay for a seat when you are done with Volaris Airlines Flight Booking. It is important to ignore this step first and click on skip now.
- If you are not okay to travel according to their random allotment, wait until check-in and complete this process as early as you can. This is a crucial time when you can select any seat without paying the charges.
- If no particular seat is your requirement, but you wish to travel with your companion, make sure you are travelling with your family and children.
 - It is their policy to let children sit with their adults without paying an additional charge. To ensure this, try to check in at the exact moment.
- If you are allotted a less favourable area, do not get instantly disheartened. When the gate finally closes and you are good to fly, politely request the staff to change your place to an empty seat from your cabin.
- If you are a regular flyer, take advantage of this membership as it will help you choose Volaris seat free of charge. You can also choose any combo deal where the seat will be either included or available at reduced prices.
